"There are only two reasons for wanting to sit in the back row of an airplane:
either you have diarrhoea, or you're anxious to meet people who do."

We recently heard from Graeme Benthein who lives in the West, but who was in Brisbane on holidays during May. He put us in touch with John Thomson who we hadn't heard from in yonks. John also lives in the West, but was also over in the East when we caught up with him.

John, who knows a thing or two about heart attacks, is taking it easy these days. Not long back he had his third, he had his first while only thirty something, while posted to Pearce, but he reckons three is enough and he's stopped counting. He's got more plastic in him than in a plumber's ute and he reckons his major arteries will outlive him by a thousand years.

John hopes to back on the right side OZ in the near future and we hope to be able to share an amber ale or two with him.

CARU Girls – 1968

Unfortunately we don't have any names – can anyone help with names and where was this photo taken??

An elderly Italian man, who lived on the outskirts of Monte Cassino, went to the local church for confession. When the priest slid open the panel in the confessional, the man said, 'Father ... during World War II, a beautiful Jewish woman from our neighbourhood knocked urgently on my door and asked me to hide her from the Nazis. So I hid her in my attic.'

The Priest replied, 'That was a wonderful thing you did, my son and you have no need to confess that.' 'But, there is more to tell, Father. She started to repay me with sexual favours. This happened several times a week, and sometimes twice on Sundays.'

The Priest said, 'By doing that, you placed yourselves in great danger. However, two people under those circumstances can easily succumb to the weakness of the flesh. However, if you are truly sorry for your actions, you are indeed forgiven.'

'Thank you, Father. That's a great load off my mind but I do have one more question.' 'And what is that, my son?' asked the Priest. "Do I have to tell her the war is over?"

Yeah – I know you could see that coming Rupe!
