

DJINNANG Association Reunion. 29 May, 2002.

You've got to hand it to these blokes and blokettes, the Djinnang Association are a loyal and close knit bunch of people and they know how to hold a reunion. They've been getting together now every year for yonks to meet up, swap a bunch of old lies, expand on deeds done and times past and to share a cold one or two with old mates.

Some of them travel miles each year for the annual get together, they come across from Perth WA, others down from Townsville, and some up from Tassie.

On the 29th May, they held their annual General Meeting at the Queensland Public Service Club in Brisbane, and once again, they filled the place.

Of course, these things don't just happen, you need a good dedicated committee to organize all this, and the current committee has to be congratulated.

Treasurer, Ron Faulkner, President Mick Lawson and Secretary, Alison Cridland.

The members demonstrated their support in their committee by re-electing the old committee in total, for another 12 months.

They are, Mick Lawson (President), Ron Faulkner (Treasurer), Alison Cridland (Secretary), and John Cridland, Alyn Hawkes, Brian Webb, Ernie Gimm and John Carruthers were all re-elected as committee members.

Joan and Glen "Buck"
Buchanan

Trev Benneworth and Alison Cridland.

John McAllister and Jeanette Kiergaard.

Lalee Jagiello and Shirley Watson

Marg and Ian Greenacre. Every year, for many years past, both Marg and Ian hook up the caravan and set off from home, which is Perth, WA, and head east for the Djinnang reunion. After meeting up with old mates at the reunion, they head off for some serious “Grey Nomadding” where they always meet up with some new ones. Good luck to them we say....

L-R: Ron Amos, Graham and Maree Solomons, Kev Taylor.

Roslyn Smith and Vanessa Holt

Steward Linton and Diane Webb

And, of course, what RAAF turnout would be complete without a bar.
The inn keeper-ess was kept busy most of the afternoon.
