

Where are they now?

We heard from Kim Andrews, he writes: “I am trying to make contact with Dallas Andrews, who is my father’s cousin. He appeared in your Association magazine (Vol 19, p 12) some years ago now, so I hope he is still around. I understand if you are unable to give me a forwarding address, but would be grateful if you did know him and were able to pass on my details.

I have a number of old family photos and papers left after the recent death of my aunt, Dallas ’ cousin, which he or his siblings might like to have.”

If you’ve got any info, please email Kim HERE or you can phone him on 0409 861 884, (03) 9818 1265

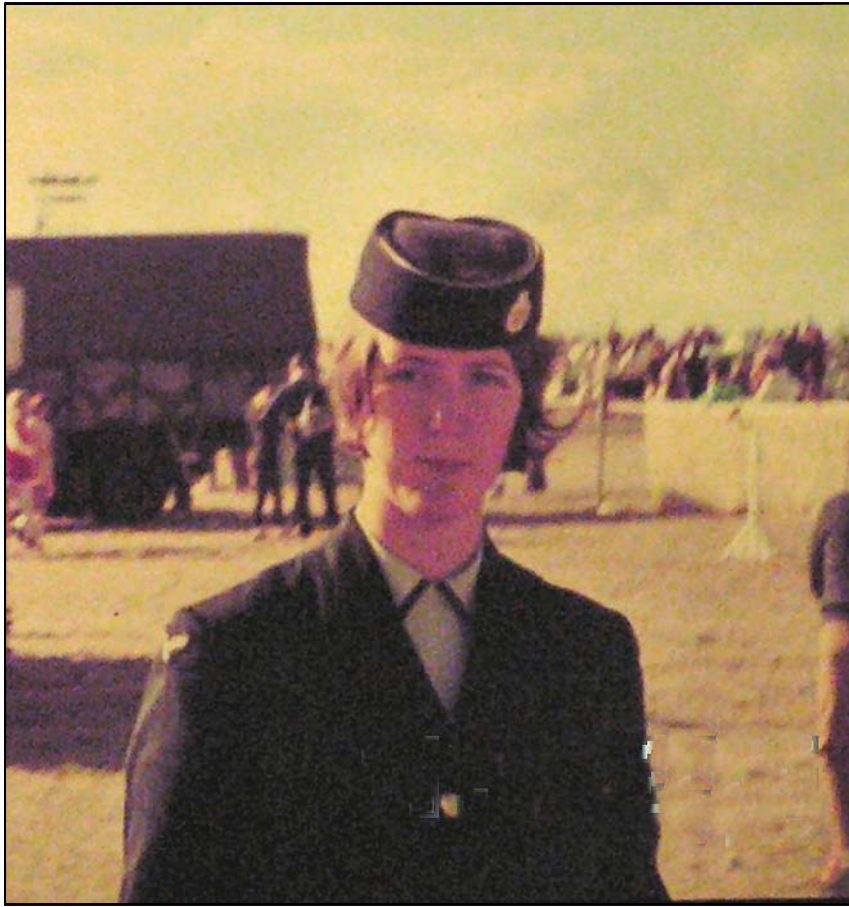

Dallas Andrews, Col Lacey and Phil Palmer having a quick one at the Irish Club in Brisbane after the 2005 Anzac day march, and before the real ‘de-briefing’ started

We’re trying to find Alan O’Connor who was on 41RTC. Alan, shown on the left in the pic at right which was taken at Brighton Beach back in 1967, was, at the time, being severely led astray by John Mathwin.

Last we heard, Alan had left the RAAF (long time ago) and joined Telstra and was working in FNQ.

If anyone has any info, please let us know.

If anyone knows where Dianne is these day, please let us know

Glen Cleland wrote, Hello, I'm looking for a friend of mine, John Hansen, who was in the RAAF, as I have just been talking to a "neighbour" here in the Clairview Holiday Park who said he served with John (Cherry Boy) in Vietnam. Can you please give him my email address as I would very much like to get in contact with him.

If anyone had any info on John, please send it to us and we'll pass it on - tb

Ray "Mongo" Morrison is trying to contact Paul Page - last known location was CO of Nav School, many years ago. Any help, please respond direct to Mongo HERE

Stuart and George were on the same apprentice intake back in 1962.

If anyone can help, please email Stuart direct HERE

Yvonne Brungs got in touch, she said, “Not sure if you are able to help us, we are doing a family search and are looking for a Geoffrey Bell from Ipswich in Queensland who was in the RAAF about 1965 (we believe in Radio school area then going to Melbourne). I know that being a common name it may be more difficult to trace this person. He had a brother named Barry. We think he only stayed in the RAAF for six years. Not a lot to go on. Please if you are able to help we would appreciate that.

If you’ve got any info, please email Yvonne HERE

Grant Hicks wrote, “ Hi there, I am trying to find some information about a mate of mine. His name is Ray McCann, he was Army, but ended up as a door gunner on Bushrangers, he was up there most of 1970 and as far as I know he was on A2-383 the one that was shot down and ended up on the beach mid 1970. Ray and I grew up together in Sydney, I joined the RAAF in 65 he joined the Army. I didn’t go to Vietnam, I was at Butterworth working on the Canberra Bombers from mid 69 to the end of 71. We still keep in touch every so often but I have lost touch with him recently.

If you’ve got any info, please email Grant HERE

Peter OBrien is looking for Ken Graham. Ken was a Radschool graduate, and very good rugby league player. He was at Radschool in the early 1970s. If you heard his deep unique laugh, you could recognise him any where. He’s also looking for an old Radschool EDO Flt Lt Henry RATNIK.

If anyone can help, please email Obie HERE

A lady goes to the bar on a cruise ship and orders a Scotch with two drops of water. As the bartender gives her the drink she says, 'I'm on this cruise to celebrate my 80th birthday and it's today...The bartender says, 'Well, since it's your birthday, I'll buy you a drink. In fact, this one is on me.' As the woman finishes her drink, the woman to her right says, 'I would like to buy you a drink, too. 'The old woman says, 'Thank you. Bartender, I want a Scotch with two drops of water please. 'Coming up,' says the bartender.

As she finishes that drink, the man to her left says, 'I would like to buy you one, too. 'The old woman says, 'Thank you. Bartender, I want another Scotch with two drops of water please. Coming right up,' the bartender says. As he gives her the drink, he says, 'Ma'am, I'm dying of curiosity. Why the Scotch with only two drops of water?' The old woman replies, 'Sonny, when you're my age, you've learned how to hold your liquor. Holding your water, however, is a whole other issue.'
